GLADIOLI FOR 1930

Member of the A. G. S.

You know when we start to tell about our plants and bulbs, we just don’t know where to start and when to stop. There are so many beautiful things and surely glads are among the first. We never dug nicer and cleaner bulbs than we did this last fall. They are chuck full of promise for this summer. We hope you can find something in the following list that will be just what you want.

DAHLIAS FOR 1930

It was a great pleasure last year to go through our dahlia field with our friends. We were surely proud of them; for, in spite of the dry weather in midsummer, they were just lovely.
The tubers we dug were fine, some of them larger than your arm. We try out new sorts each year and discard all kinds that do not come up to our standard. We believe that a dahlia should be a FREE BLOOMER and produce GOOD CUT FLOWERS to be worthy of a place in the garden. We do not sell dahlias that we have not tried out in our gardens. Another thing we would like to emphasize - buy tubers where they have been grown under ordinary cultivation, not forced for show bloom. Neither should they be bought where they have been neglected in the field. We will replace all tubers when the eye does not make growth.
